

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair would request that the gentleman from Mississippi [Mr. MONTGOMERY], who led the House for the first time in the pledge of allegiance on September 13, 1988, lead the House in the pledge of allegiance at the end of the 104th Congress.

Mr. MONTGOMERY led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will entertain ten 1-minutes on each side.

NO ACCOMPLISHMENTS FOR 104TH CONGRESS

(Mr. PALLONE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I listened to my Republican colleagues outside the Capitol yesterday saying how they are going to go home and tout their commonsense accomplishments. I would say that nothing could be further from the truth. Looking at the Congress and the Republican leadership, they shut down the Government twice for nearly an entire month, wasting $1.4 billion of taxpayers' money. They abandoned a balanced budget by essentially proposing extreme proposals for tax breaks that would primarily benefit wealthy Americans.

They voted for the largest education cuts in history, essentially abandoning our Nation's children. They undermined crime fighting efforts by voting to kill the COPS initiatives by the President that would put 100,000 new policemen on the streets, and they voted to roll back 25 years of bipartisan progress on environmental protection.

These are the accomplishments of the 104th Congress, and as far as I am concerned, the sooner the Gingrich Congress is put to rest, the better.

SORRY RECORD OF REPUBLICAN CONGRESS

(Ms. DELAURO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, yesterday House Republicans held a campaign rally on the steps of the Capitol to celebrate their 2 years of running Congress with balloons and a brass band.

But as someone once said, you can put wings on a pig but that doesn't make it an eagle.

What's really going on here, and the reason why we are meeting in a highly unusual Saturday session is that Republicans are in a desperate hurry to get out of town and start putting some distance between themselves and the sorry record of failure they have accumulated.

Don't just take my word for it. Listen to what the Los Angeles Times said earlier this week:

The 104th Congress, which began almost 2 years ago with Republicans storming the barricades of the Washington establishment is ending with a mad dash for the exits—their forced march toward adjournment looks more like a hasty retreat.
